

Paul Manelis

Vice President - Wealth Management and Business Development Officer

Paul joined Devon Bank in 2021 as Vice President of the Trust and Wealth Management team. His primary responsibilities include all aspects of new business development and marketing, relationship management with clients, attorneys, and CPAs, as well as participating in the oversight of trust and wealth management assets.

Paul has over 20 years of business development experience in the financial services industry. He spent the early part of his career at Piper Jaffray, as part of the institutional sales and trading team, before moving on to a role as head trader and director of sales at NorthPointe Capital. More recently, Paul had stints in business development for Zacks Investment Management and Fisher Investments. Paul earned his bachelor's degree from Central Michigan University, majoring in Finance and Management.
