THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE NAMES DEVON BANK A WINNER OF THE CHICAGO TOP WORKPLACES 2020 AWARD

CHICAGO, IL — Devon Bank has been awarded a Top Workplaces 2020 honor by The Chicago Tribune. The list is based solely on employee feedback gathered through a third-party survey administered by employee engagement technology partner Energage, LLC. The anonymous survey uniquely measures 15 drivers of engaged cultures that are critical to the success of any organization: including alignment, execution, and connection, just to name a few.

“In times of great change, it is more important than ever to maintain a connection among employees,” said Eric Rubino, Energage CEO. “When you give your employees a voice, you come together to navigate challenges and shape your path forward based on real-time insights into what works best for your organization. The Top Workplaces program can be that positive outcome your company can rally around in the coming months to celebrate leadership and the importance of maintaining an employee-focused culture, even during challenging times.”

The Bank is thrilled to be named as a Top Workplace and recognizes how employee engagement correlates to increased customer satisfaction. Devon Bank has and will continue to strive to provide employees a strong company culture, one that fosters engagement and growth. The award is more than just a celebration, but an integral part of the Bank’s mission.
